With a culinary philosophy that is “fresh, fast and fun” and a wine list that contains many award winning estate wines, your journey is bound to be an explosion of visual and taste sensations.

With outdoor dining in the courtyard and a la Carte menu, The Mossel restaurant is perfect for any occasion. and is sure to delight you with its superb local and international cuisines on offer throughout the day.

A range of exotic refreshments and cocktails is also available at Delgo bar.

Local Attractions

Besides rapid industrial expansion, the tourism industry of this region is flourishing. The commercial and industrial development of Richards Bay has been a bonus for the sophisticated tourist and holiday maker.

Its bustling business centre has every modern facility and the town boasts excellent recreational facilities for residents and visitors alike. Richards Bay boasts the country's deepest harbour and is the largest exporter of coal in the Southern Hemisphere. Richards Bay is also home to the most magnificent wetland scenery. "Industrial Tourism" is actively promoted and groups are able to visit industrial plants, mines and other operations. Richards Bay also offers the visitor entrance to Zululand – this once forgotten corner of the African continent is a land of exquisite beauty characterised by incredible diversity.

The coastline stretches some three hundred and fifty kilometres from the mouth of the mighty Tugela River in the south to the Mozambique border in the north. The coastal plains include endless beaches and coastal conservation areas and incorporate the largest estuarine system in Southern Africa. Shopping, beaches and natural wonders are everywhere and those in search of true African beauty will not leave wanting. Bookings are essential and reception will gladly make arrangements for you.
