WESTERN CAPE

Cape Town and the Western Cape are undoubtedly amongst the most beautiful places to visit in the world. Rich in contrasting regions like the Cape Winelands, the Klein Karoo, the East, and West Coast that present variations in weather, landscape, and activities.

The Western Cape's unmatched natural beauty, famous hospitality, cultural diversity, excellent wine, and rich cuisine, make it one of the world's greatest tourist attractions. From the mother city's Table Mountain, Kirstenbosch, and Robben Island, to a drive-through Bird Island on the West Coast. The Cango Caves in Oudtshoorn, and to the east, the region around Knysna and Tsitsikamma which has the country's largest indigenous forests, there is no shortage of things to do.

EASTERN CAPE

The second-largest province, the Eastern Cape has a diversity that extends across landscapes ranging from the desert of the Great Karoo to the pounding waves of the Wild Coast. The Eastern Cape's main feature is its spectacular coastline, lapped by the temperate Indian Ocean, stretches of unspoilt sandy beaches, rocky coves, lagoons and towering cliffs.

A major attraction in the Eastern Cape is the award-winning East London International Convention Centre, which is located on the beachfront. Former South African president and icon of peace, Nelson Mandela, came from this region.
